

Mã đề thi: 169

SECTION 4: WRITING – SUGGESTED ANSWERS

Word formation (1.5 pts)

36. The extreme weather this year is intolerable ; the heat waves have been too harsh.	tolerate
37. Ecologists study the relationships between living things and their environment.	ecology
38. On the bright side, the potential for renewable energy is virtually unlimited .	limit
39. The current media is characterized by abundant information and misinformation.	character
40. The exploration of the universe poses challenging questions to humans.	explore

PART 2: Sentence transformation (1.5 pts)

41. Consumers can promote sustainable fashion by supporting eco-friendly brands. (BACKING)

→ By backing up eco-friendly brands, consumers can promote sustainable fashion.

42. "Ask questions if you're not sure of anything," said the teacher. (REMINDED)

→ The teacher reminded the students to ask questions if they were ^{uncertain} unsure about something anything.

43. The transmission of family traditions from one generation to the next is common in many cultures. (DOWN)

→ In many cultures, people tend to ^{hand down} pass down their family traditions from generation to generation.

44. Due to the impacts of climate change, natural disasters are becoming more frequent and severe. (WILL)

→ If humans don't fight/combat climate change, natural disasters will become even more frequent and severe.

45. ChatGPT has become a household name in the field of artificial intelligence. (FAMILIAR)

→ ChatGPT is a familiar term in the field of artificial intelligence.

familiar name

Mã đề thi: 245

SECTION 4: WRITING – SUGGESTED ANSWERS

Word formation (1.5 pts)

36. The exploration of the universe poses challenging questions to humans.	explore
37. The current media is characterized by abundant information and misinformation.	character
38. Ecologists study the relationships between living things and their environment.	ecology
39. The extreme weather this year is intolerable ; the heat waves have been too harsh.	tolerate
40. On the bright side, the potential for renewable energy is virtually unlimited .	limit

PART 2: Sentence transformation (1.5 pts)

41. Due to the impacts of climate change, natural disasters are becoming more frequent and severe. (WILL)

→ If humans don't fight/ combat climate change, natural disasters will become even more frequent and severe.

42. Consumers can promote sustainable fashion by supporting eco-friendly brands. (BACKING)

→ By backing up eco-friendly brands, consumers can promote sustainable fashion.

43. ChatGPT has become a household name in the field of artificial intelligence. (FAMILIAR)

→ ChatGPT is a ^{familiar name} familiar term in the field of artificial intelligence.

44. The transmission of family traditions from one generation to the next is common in many cultures. (DOWN)

→ In many cultures, people tend to ^{hand down} pass down their family traditions from generation to generation.

45. "Ask questions if you're not sure of anything," said the teacher. (REMIND)

→ The teacher reminded the students to ask questions if they were unsure about something / anything.
[uncertain]

SECTION 4: WRITING – SUGGESTED ANSWERS

Word formation (1.5 pts)

36. Ecologists study the relationships between living things and their environment.	ecology
37. The current media is characterized by abundant information and misinformation.	character
38. The exploration of the universe poses challenging questions to humans.	explore
39. The extreme weather this year is intolerable ; the heat waves have been too harsh.	tolerate
40. On the bright side, the potential for renewable energy is virtually unlimited .	limit

PART 2: Sentence transformation (1.5 pts)

41. ChatGPT has become a household name in the field of artificial intelligence. (FAMILIAR)

→ ChatGPT is a ^{familiar name} familiar term in the field of artificial intelligence.

42. "Ask questions if you're not sure of anything," said the teacher. (REMINDED)

→ The teacher reminded the students to ask questions if they were ^{uncertain} unsure about something/anything.

43. The transmission of family traditions from one generation to the next is common in many cultures. (DOWN)

→ In many cultures, people tend to ^{hand down} pass down their family traditions from generation to generation.

44. Consumers can promote sustainable fashion by supporting eco-friendly brands. (BACKING)

→ By backing up eco-friendly brands, consumers can promote sustainable fashion.

45. Due to the impacts of climate change, natural disasters are becoming more frequent and severe. (WILL)

→ If humans don't fight/combat climate change, natural disasters will become even more frequent and severe.

SECTION 4: WRITING – SUGGESTED ANSWERS

Word formation (1.5 pts)

36. The current media is characterized by abundant information and misinformation.	character
37. Ecologists study the relationships between living things and their environment.	ecology
38. The extreme weather this year is intolerable ; the heat waves have been too harsh.	tolerate
39. On the bright side, the potential for renewable energy is virtually unlimited .	limit
40. The exploration of the universe poses challenging questions to humans.	explore

PART 2: Sentence transformation (1.5 pts)

41. Consumers can promote sustainable fashion by supporting eco-friendly brands. (BACKING)

→ By backing up eco-friendly brands, consumers can promote sustainable fashion.

42. ChatGPT has become a household name in the field of artificial intelligence. (FAMILIAR)

→ ChatGPT is a ^{familiar name} familiar term in the field of artificial intelligence.

43. The transmission of family traditions from one generation to the next is common in many cultures. (DOWN)

→ In many cultures, people tend to ^{hand down} pass down their family traditions from generation to generation.

44. Due to the impacts of climate change, natural disasters are becoming more frequent and severe. (WILL)

→ If humans don't fight/combat climate change, natural disasters will become even more frequent and severe.

45. "Ask questions if you're not sure of anything," said the teacher. (REMINDED)

→ The teacher reminded the students to ask questions if they were unsure about something ^{uncertain} / ^{anything}